DEATH OF A PROMINENT PHYSICIAN.

Dr. E. A. Waggener Crosses Over to the Other Side Monday Morning a Few Minutes Before 9 O'clock.

Last Monday morning just before 9 o'clock Dr. E. A. Waggener, who has made his home in Columbia for several years, boarding at the Hancock Hotel, passed beyond the veil. His single daughter, Miss Catherine Waggener, and several relatives and friends being with him in his last moments.

Eighteen years ago, but few physicians and surgeons had a more extensive reputation than the deceased. He was a man of superior intellect, a constant reader, and was up on all diseases the human family heirs. Eighteen years ago he met with an accident at Burlington, Iowa, where he was practicing; was terribly crushed, many bones being broken, and since that occurrence he was an invalid, but at times did considerable office practice. He was not only well posted in the profession, but was well versed in the current history of the country, and was, when feeling well, an interesting conversationalist. The doctors of this county recognized him as a learned physician, giving his opinions weight.

His boyhood days were spent in Columbia and its vicinity, his ancestors having been born and reared in the county, and when he returned to this place, about five years ago, he told the writer that he expected to end his days here, that the town felt more like home to him than any other place. When the Civil war came Dr. Waggener was living either at Greensburg or Mumfordsville. He enlisted in the Confederate army, joining his uncle's company, Capt. John Adair, went South and was in a number of engagements. After the first two years of hostilities, he was transferred from Capt. Adair's company, Gen. Jo Lewis' regiment, to Morgan's command, serving until the war closed. Soon after peace was declared he took up the study of medicine and graduated from three medical institutions, located respectively in Louisville, Philadelphia and New York.

He came from an old aristocratic family and was proud of his lineage. He was a son of Thomas Waggener and a grandson of Edmund P. Waggener, and was born at Greensburg sixty-nine years ago.

The deceased was a member of the Presbyterian church, but no funeral discourse was delivered. The reading of passages of scripture, song and prayer at the grave concluded the exercises.

The interment was at ten a. m., this (Tuesday) in the city cemetery, a large circle of sympathizing friends being present.

This paper extends its sympathy to the two surviving daughters.

Born, to the wife of W. D. Harmon, May 3, a son—Finis Hayden.

Death of a Former Resident

Mr. J. T. Kemp, brother of Mr. G. A. Kemp, this place, died at his late residence in Bradfordsville, Marion county, last Friday morning at 6 o'clock. The deceased was born and reared in Adair county, and for quite a number of years resided in Columbia. As we are informed, he was a victim of stomach trouble, and was on the decline for more than a year. He was a man of excellent character, making many friends at his adopted home. He was industrious, and starting in life a poor boy, his pluck and energy accumulated a very good estate. For many years he was a general merchant, but growing tired of confinement, he purchased a fine farm where he died, taking the deepest interest in its cultivation.

Early in life he made a profession of his faith in Christ, united with the Baptist Church, living a consistent member until called to his reward.

The deceased many Adair county friends will be sorry to learn of his passing, and Bradfordsville has sustained a great loss. There is no way to estimate the grief that lingers with the wife and six children, and the surviving brother. The exact age of Mr. Kemp is not known to us, but we believe he was sixty-two or three years old. The writer knew him from a boy and at all times regarded him as a staunch, upright citizen.

Seriously Shot.

Last Saturday night week Mr. Finis Rogers, son of Mr. W. T. Rogers, who was reared in the Keltner neighborhood, and who was well known in the Western part of Adair county, was seriously shot at Chattanooga, Tenn. Young Rogers is a druggist, and was preparing to close his store for the night, when two negroes entered and asked for change. While they were being accommodated they commenced shooting. One ball entered Mr. Rogers' breast at the nipple, passed through him and lodged in a boy clerk of the store. The negroes escaped. The family of Mr. W. R. Myers, this place, is related to Mr. Rogers, and a letter to them states that while the wound is serious the patient has a fighting chance to recover.

Attention Candidates.

Candidate for county offices will now get busy with petitions to get on the ballot. The primary law says that candidates seeking party nominations may circulate their petitions on and after May 3, and must be filed with the County Court Clerk not later than July 3. Any nominating petition circulated before May 3 will be declared worthless and will disqualify the candidates from getting on the ballot. Candidates are required to have on their petitions the signatures of not less than 3 per cent, and not an excess of 10 per cent, of the voters of the party in which they seek the nomination. This is based on the party's vote for President at the last general election.

Sunday week Rev. A. R. Kasey, former pastor of the Methodist Church, this place, will preach the baccalaureate sermon before the pupils of the Lindsey-Wilson at the 11 o'clock hour. Services will be at the church and everybody is invited. Monday morning in the Lindsey-Wilson Chapel, he will deliver the address to the graduating class.

A copy of the first issue of Russell County Advance, published at Russell Springs by I. M. Tuller, who is its editor, reached our table Wednesday afternoon. It is a six page, four column sheet, and it has been well gotten up. It contains a great deal of local matter and the selected matter is timely. The print is all right and the make-up shows skill. We welcome the Advance to our exchange list, and trust that the editor may be profited by its publication.

A primary for the post-office at Campbellsville was held last Saturday. There were only two entries, Thomas Newton and Charley Fleece. Result, Newton 116; Fleece 90. W. I. Meader, who has been endorsed by Congressman Johnson, "just clawed on."

There will be a meeting of the Adair County Medical Society, at Dr. Cartwright's office in Columbia on Friday, May 9, 1913, at 10 o'clock, at which every physician in the county is expected to attend.

There will be Mothers Day Exercises at the Christian Church Sunday morning. A program with songs and recitations will be prepared.

Genuine bottle coca cola at Henry Ingram's.

A Happy Marriage.

Jamestown, Ky., May 1st, 1913. Soon after preaching was over at the Christian church last Wednesday night, Mr. R. E. Lloyd and Miss Jossie Dockery, of this place, were happily married by Rev. D. T. Tarter.

Mr. Lloyd is a fine young lawyer and as nice a young man as can be found anywhere. And Miss Dockery is one of our finest young ladies in these parts, and is loved by all.

After being congratulated the young couple went to their new home, on Water street which is a nice cottage, near the home of H. H. Dunbar.

The news spread like wild fire, and by 11:10 a band of 50 men and boys armed with tea-bells, dinner bells, pans, and various instruments to help out, surrounded the house and in a short time all on that street were aroused from their peaceful slumber by many good songs and the great noise created by the happy band of boys.

We all extend our hearty congratulations to them and wish them many days of prosperity.

On the 10th of April Mr. L. C. Powell, whose home is near Glenville, met with a serious accident. He was kicked by a mule, breaking one of his legs above the knee. He has been confined to his bed ever since but hopes to be able to get out before long. Our failure to mention this earlier was due to the fact that our correspondent in his reports, and we failed to hear it. We trust Mr. Powell will soon be able to stir. He is a good citizen, an upright man and we will be glad to shake his hand when able to come to Columbia.

Mr. Wade Helm, of this place, who is employed at Ashland, Ky., met with a very serious accident, it is reported, a few days ago. He was on a scaffold, eight or ten feet high, which gave way, and young Helm was dashed to the ground. It was first thought that he was fatally hurt, but word from Ashland states that he is improving and will doubtless be all right in a short time.

Mr. Charles Sanders, son of Mr. Frank Sanders, of this county, who is teaching in the State of Kansas, is measuring up to full requirements. At the close of his school in April he was served with an elegant dinner and re-employed on an increase of salary. His many friends here are proud of the high esteem in which he is held in his new location and the splendid success he is achieving.

The mountain City Steam boat sank on Cumberland river last Wednesday, not far from Burridge. It was heavily loaded with freight and the loss is said to be $20,000.

A Russell's Creek Baptist Sunday-school Convention was organized at Campbellsville last Sunday. Quite a delegation of Columbians went over.

The program for Field Day exercises, May 9, is the best one ever gotten out. Let every body attend and enjoy the day.

Noted Actor Under the Knife.

Special from Indianapolis:

"Otis Skinner, the actor, underwent an operation here to-day for the removal of an abscess back of the ear. Dr. Lafayette Page, of the Indiana University School of Medicine, who performed the operation, said that, while Mr. Skinner withstood the knife in good shape, his condition was serious. The actor has been troubled with his ear for about a month, and the trouble had become so deeply seated, Dr. Page said, that it had almost reached the membrane of the brain. Mr. Skinner should be able to leave the hospital in three weeks, if there are no complications, according to the specialist.

"Mr. Skinner came here yesterday from Boston, where he had just concluded an engagement, to consult Dr. Page. The operation was decided on and the actor wired for his wife to come to Indianapolis. She did not arrive here until after the operation had been performed."

Dr. Page was born and reared in Columbia, and is a brother of Mr. Jas. T. Page.

Post Office Robbed.

The post office at Monticello was entered by robbers last Thursday night, the safe blown open, and two hundred and fifty dollars taken. The sheriff, so it is reported here, organized a posse next morning and started to run down the thieves. The man who carries the mail between Columbia and Creelsboro, reported here Saturday morning, that the robbers, four men and one woman, were caught by the Wayne county authorities Friday morning, below Creelsboro, and $1,500 was found on their persons.

Republican Committee Meeting.

The Republican Committee of Adair County is hereby called to meet at the Court House in Columbia, Ky., at 1 o'clock p. m. on Monday, May 19th 1913, to consider such questions as may effect the interest and success of said party. W. F. Sanders, Chairman.

Called to Frankfort.

Judge N. H. Moss has been notified to appear before the Board of Equalization, Frankfort, and show cause why the real estate and personal property of Adair county should not be raised 10 per cent. He leaves for Frankfort this (Wednesday) morning, and thinks he can give good and sufficient reasons why the raise should not be made. He will be accompanied by County Attorney Gordon Montgomery, J. M. Wolford and J. Z. Conover.

Ptomain Poisoned.

Last Friday afternoon Mr. Ernest Flowess was taken violently ill, on his farm, a few miles from town. He was at work in the field in the forenoon and when the dinner hour arrived he took his meal with his tenant and several hands. Soon after eating he became quite sick as did the others who dined with him. Dr. W. J. Flowers, J. W. and Ray Flowers were called and it was decided by the physician that all the parties were victims of ptomain poison. Emetics were given and the patients soon came around all right. It is believed that the poison was in the meat which came from a distant market.

Death of an Octogenarian.

Mr. Wade Mosby, who was a highly respected citizen of the Sparksville neighborhood, died last Thursday morning. He was eighty-odd years old, and had been a devoted Christian for many years, being a member of the Methodist church. The interment was at Breeding after religious exercises. "Uncle" Wade, as he was familiarly called, will be greatly missed, as he was a wise counselor, and at all times standing for the right. In testimony of his high character many friends attended the funeral and burial.

FACTS REGARDING HERO OF SURGERY.

Relative Writes Interestingly Concerning Famous Case.

MONUMENT TO BE ERECTED.

Editors of Sullivan, Indiana Union:—

I have received a clipping from your paper of January 1st, 1913, relative to the grave of Mrs. Jane Crawford, whose remains rest in the Johnson cemetery near Graysville, in your county. Some of the statements require slight correction. I am not a descendant of Mrs. Jane Crawford, but a grandson of Rachel Crawford, a sister of Thomas Crawford, husband of Mrs. Jane Crawford. Thomas Crawford and Thomas Mitchell, who married his sister Rachel, emigrated from Rockbridge county Va., in 1805 and settled in Green county Ky., on adjoining farms. While residing there the famous operation was performed on the wife of Thomas Crawford by Dr. Ephriam McDowell, now known as the Father of Ovariectomy. Thomas Crawford remained in Kentucky till about the year 1817 when he removed to Jefferson county, Indiana, and settled on a farm near Madison. There is a tradition among his descendants that he left Kentucky on account of his opposition to slavery. A monument was erected to Dr. Ephriam McDowell at Danville, Ky., in 1879, but no steps have been taken as yet to my knowledge towards erecting a monument to his first patient, Mrs. Crawford. The suggestion for such a monument was made in the address by Dr. Samuel D. Gross at the dedication of the McDowell monument. After his eulogy upon Dr. McDowell, Dr. Gross spoke of Mrs. Crawford as follows:

"All honor, too, to the heroic woman who, with death literally staring her in the face, was the first to submit calmly and resignedly to what certainly was at the time a surgical experiment. To her, too, let a monument be erected, not by the citizens of Kentucky, but by the suffering women who, with her example before them, have been the recipients of the inestimable boon of ovariectomy, with a new lease of their lives and with immunity from subsequent discomfort and distress. I know of no greater example in all history of heroism than that displayed by this noble woman in submitting to an untried operation."

Mr. James Lane, author of a "Kentucky Cardinal," "The Choir Invisible," and other books refers to the event in his volume entitled "The Doctor's Christmas Eve," on page 100 in which he says:

"More centuries have passed—we know exactly how many now from year to year. It is the nineteenth, and it is the New World; the next picture on the library wall portrayed a scene on the Western frontier of a new civilization. It is the backwoods of Kentucky, it is a pioneer settlement of three or four hundred souls, nearly a thousand miles from any hospital or dissecting room. In the front door of his rude pioneer house stands a Kentucky country doctor, Ephriam McDowell. His patient is before him, a woman on horseback in a side-saddle. She has just arrived, having ridden some seventy miles through the wilderness. He is assisting her to alight; and he is soon to perform, without consultation, without precedent in the ages of surgery (but not without a prayer for himself and her), by strength of his own will and nerve and by the light of the solitary candle of his own genius, an operation which made Kentucky the mother of ovarian surgery for all coming time going his own way to immortality as Shakespeare went his, as the greatest always go theirs—by a new path a new epoch of life and mercy; he untrumpeted and alone."

Collins' history of Kentucky also makes a record of the operation and the fame it brought Dr. McDowell.

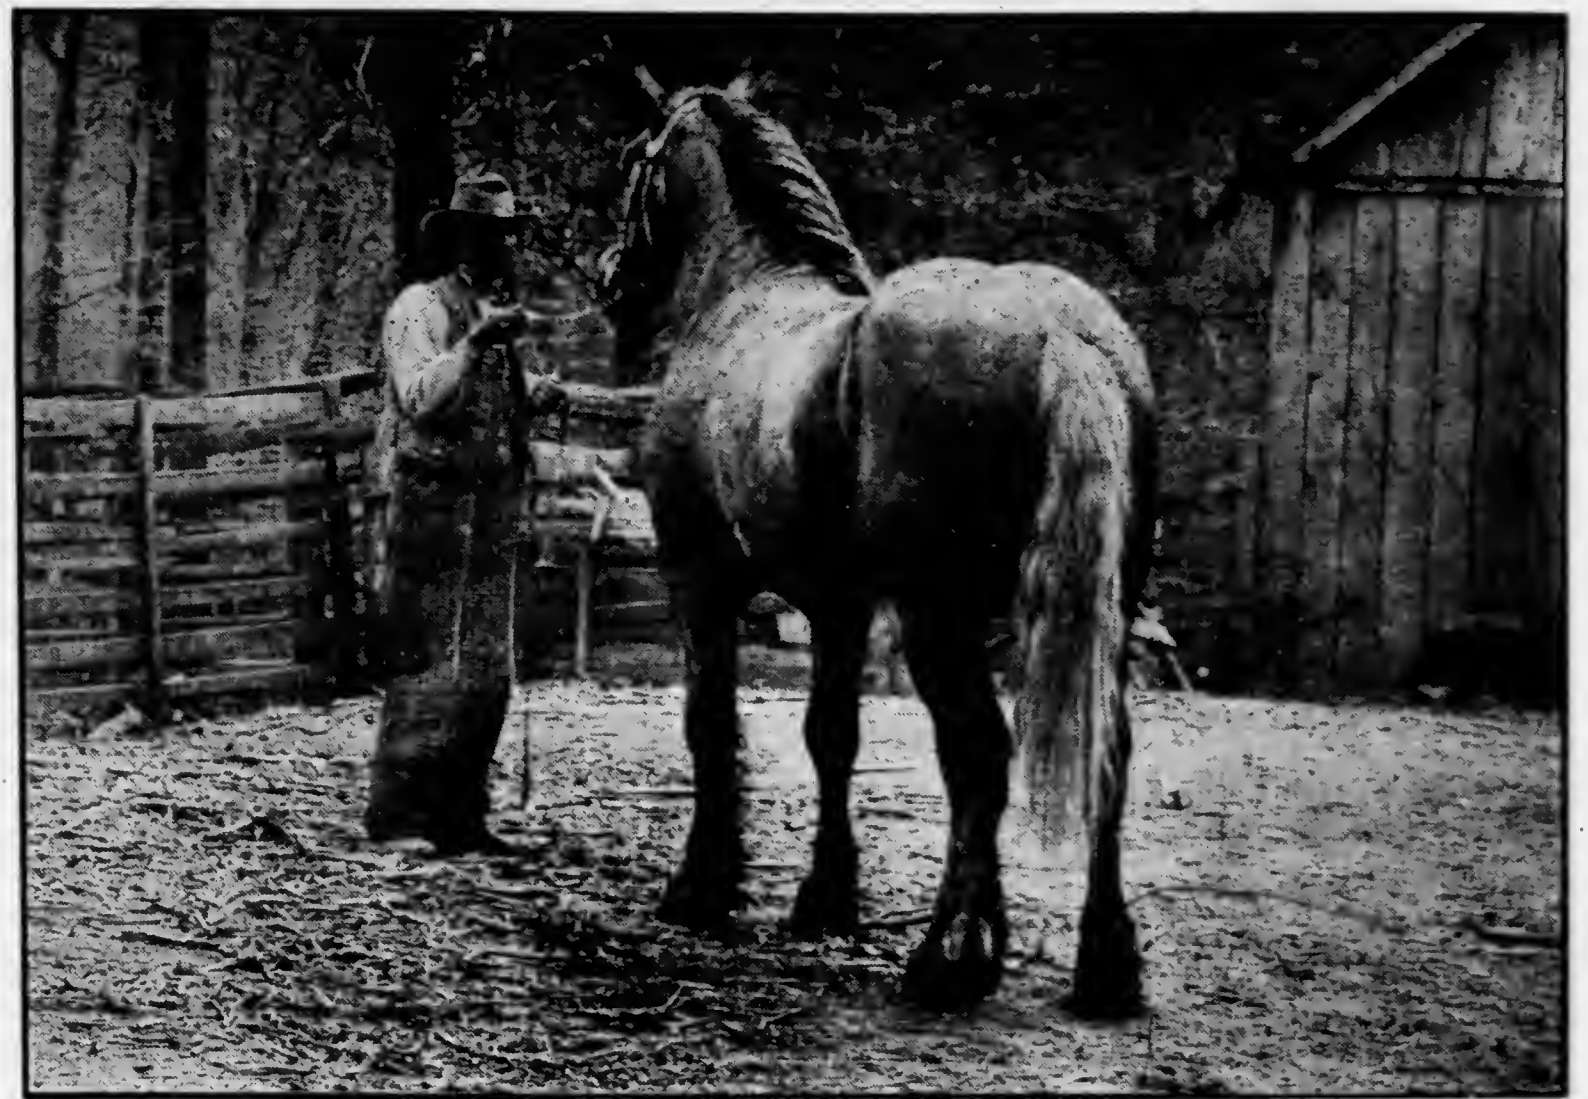

Mrs. Jane Crawford has thus received honorable mention in history orations and literature, but it seems that only recently has anyone taken the pains to look up her history.

In October, 1912, I received a letter from Miss Amelia Crawford, of Covington, Ky., a granddaughter of this heroine requesting me to answer a number of questions submitted to her by Dr. August Schachner, of Louisville Ky., regarding Mrs. Jane Crawford. I understand to Dr. Schachner primarily belongs the credit of starting this investigation. I have known Miss Amelia Crawford for several years when she lived in Louisville, Ky. I also knew her father, Hon. Thos. Howell Crawford, one time Mayor of Louisville. He and my father were first cousins; beyond this I knew very little of the Crawford family until I undertook to answer the questions of Dr. Schachner, nor did I know that Mrs. Jane Crawford had more than one son, in fact I did not know her Christian name until I had the records examined in Green Co., Ky., and found that Thomas Crawford and Jane his wife, conveyed a tract of land there in December, 1810 to one John Motley, this was about a year after the operation which took place in December, 1809, according to one authority; another writer says it occurred in June, 1809; all agree that it was some time in the year 1809.

Mrs. Crawford's maiden name was Todd. There is a belief among her descendants that she was a first cousin of Gen. Levi Todd, the grandfather of Miss Mary Todd, who became the wife of Abraham Lincoln. I am not able to verify this from any record to which I have had access, perhaps some one familiar with the Todd genealogy may know the fact. I have learned from the descendants of Mrs. Crawford that she had four children who reached mature years. Three sons, James, Samuel and Thomas Howell and one daughter, Alice, who married one Wm. Paul Brown and died at an advanced age in Morning Sun, Iowa, in the year 1884. I understand the older residents of your county remember the son, Rev. James Crawford, who lived in the vicinity of Graysville, and died at Morning Sun, Iowa, in July, 1872, at the age of 77 years leaving one son, Alexander Crawford, who is supposed to have died some years ago at Waco, Texas. There are no descendants of James, Samuel or Thomas Howell Crawford now known to be living, except Miss Amelia Crawford, daughter of Thomas H. Crawford, and it is possible that there are some living descendants of Samuel living in the West, but if so their places of residence is unknown to their relatives. Samuel Crawford died probably at Logansport, Indiana, about 1843 and Thomas H. Crawford was fatally burned and died at Pewee Valley, Ky., in June, 1871; Mrs. Alice Brown is believed to have over 70 living descendants, living chiefly in Iowa and Kansas. Her son, James Crawford Brown, still lives at Morning Sun, Iowa, at the age of 87 years. He has a maiden sister in the same place of an advanced age. After learning that Rev. James Crawford was a Presbyterian minister, I traced his history in the minutes of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church. I received through Mr. J. C. Brown, of Morning Sun, Iowa, the information that Mrs. Jane Crawford died at the home of her son, Rev. James Crawford, near Graysville, Indiana, and that her remains were probably buried in a cemetery near that place. On December 6, 1912, I wrote Rev. John McArthur, Presbyterian minister at Sullivan, Indiana, asking his aid in locating the grave. I received a prompt answer to which I replied on December 18. On December 16, I received another letter from Rev. McArthur containing the definite information that Mrs. Crawford's grave was in the Johnson cemetery, and giving the inscription on her tombstone containing date of her death as March 30, 1842, aged 75 years. I am deeply grateful to Mr. McArthur for his assistance as well as to any others who may have aided in locating the grave. I have had a letter from Dr. Maple, secretary of the Sullivan County Medical Society and from another physician at Graysville, whose name I do not recall. A photograph of the grave appears in the Journal of the American Medical Association for January 4, 1913, and a statement of Dr. W. N. Thompson. I understand the photograph was furnished by Dr. J. R. Hinkle. In the issue of this Journal for January 18, 1913, appears another statement from Dr. Thompson regarding the grave. We shall be glad to gather as many facts as possible concerning Mrs. Crawford, and hope some day that a sketch may be prepared containing a fuller history than has yet appeared. Any one in the vicinity of Sullivan who can give any information regarding her life or who knows any thing of the date and place of death of Alexander Crawford, son of Rev. James Crawford or anything of the descendants of Samuel Crawford, another son of Mrs. Jane Todd Crawford, I shall be pleased to hear from them. I am in no way connected with the National Medical Association and do not have charge of any arrangements to erect a monument. This part of the statement in your paper is premature. I should be glad indeed to see some association take hold of the matter, and would do anything in my power to aid in the work. I am a member of the local profession and necessarily have to devote my time to my clients. Mrs. Crawford will no doubt in

Mr. Work's Position

Senator Works, of California, vigorously scores the newspapers in a speech delivered in the Senate in support of his resolution prohibiting the District of Columbia papers from printing accounts of accidents, tragedies and crimes. Mr. Works' argued that such publications had a poisonous and deleterious effect upon the minds of the public and therefore, ought to be stopped.

Mr. Works' conclusion is unquestionably right, but, as we think his premise equally certain to be wrong.

Quite reversing the Senator's views, we do not believe there is a single agency which, if properly employed, can do more toward putting down crime than a newspaper. Persons there are, and a plenty, too, who shun the white light of publicity more than conviction itself. The possibility of being disgraced by such publications, we have no doubt, has had a deterrent effect upon more than one would-be criminal.

If the Senator had had a little experience in newspaper office, and had the opportunity to know how many hundred calls we have to keep stories of crime and arrest out of the paper he would better know how the offenders dread this sort of publicity.—E-Town News.

What is Income?

(Philadelphia Leader.)

What is income? If you bought a house 10 years ago for $5,000 and sold it yesterday for $10,000, would the $15,000 profit count as income for 1913?

If you bought 1,000 shares of stock at $100 a share last September and sold yesterday at $110, would the $10,000 profit be a part of your 1913 income?

No, in both instances. They should properly be classed as additions to capital, and capital is not in any sense income. One man might have a million dollars in a bank vault and still be not subject to an income tax, because his million wouldn't be earning a dollar.

Income implies time, capital does not. Income is something earned over a period of time, but the added value to the house was not in any sense earned. Nor was the increase in the price of the 1,000 shares of stock earned.

If it were attempted to measure by an income yard stick the fluctuation in capital, no one would ever be able to tell exactly what his income was. Until you sell your house you do not know how much value has been added, and the same is true of your stocks and bonds. You may guess, but there is no certainty.

Income is a definite and stated return upon labor and upon capital. The rent derived from a house is income. The added value to the house is capital. A man's salary is income, but his capacity to earn more salary is capital.

If you were to find a thousand dollars on the street, that would not figure as a part of your income for 1913. If you at once invested it so as to get 5 per cent interest, the $50 it would bring you would be part of your income for the year. If your father gave you a house, that wouldn't figure in your income account, but as soon as the house began to yield rent for you that would be income. The gift of the house would be an addition to your capital.

The Courts make a clear distinction in the matter of income and capital. The trustee of an estate might invest $100,000 in securities and in a year be able to sell them for $110,000. If the trusteeship stipulated that he should distribute only income to the beneficiaries the Court would not permit him to give them the $10,000 profit derived from the sale of the securities. That would be capital and not income. The $10,000 would have to be invested.

Meat Bearing Tree.

In Mexico grows a tree called the Avocado, whose pear-shaped fruit is reputed to be composed of the substances which are to be found in meat. It contains about 20 percent of fat and many other ingredients of great food value, one good-sized "meat" pear is quite sufficient to make a meal for the average man.

The reason why the fruit is so little known at present is because it is grown nowhere on a large scale; what few trees there are grow round the huts of the natives, where they flourish with little care and afford easy meals for the indolent owners.

Cultivated on extensive lines it might have an important bearing on that serious subject, the high cost of living.

RAVEN BIRD.

This fine Stallion will make the season of 1913 at my barn 2 miles from Jamestown and will be permitted to serve mares for $8.00 to insure a living colt. Money due when colt is foaled, or mare traded or removed from neighborhood or bred to other stock. All care taken to prevent accidents but not responsible should any occur.

RAVEN BIRD sired by Red Bird 1956, he by Cabell's Joe, Brown 1955, he by Cabell's Lexington 3234, by Gist's Black Hawk. 1st dam Authilia Thompson, by Thompson's Lexington, he by Cabell's Lexington 3234, by Gist's Black Hawk. 2nd dam by Caldwell's Denmark, he by King Denmark. 3rd dam Bonie, by old Nat Brown 81.

RAVEN BIRD is a beautiful mahogany bay, full 16 hands high, 6 years old, has the best of eyes, feet and legs, a beautiful head and neck, a very heavy well set tail, which he at all times carries to perfection. He possesses extreme speed, style and action, and the most perfect disposition of any stallion I have ever seen or handled. He has fine distinct gaits, and goes them all in a most attractive manner. He is one of Red Bird's greatest sons, and has proven himself an excellent breeder.

This Jack is the John McFarland Jack, 15 hands 3 inches high, and will stand at same place at $8.00 to insure a living colt. Same terms as applied to horse.

Postponed a Year.

A startling development in the Kentucky Senatorial contest came last week when Charlton Thompson, of Covington, who was one of the men who drafted the Kentucky State primary law, now on the statute books, gave out the information that the ratification of the amendment to the Federal constitution providing for the popular election of Senators will prolong the battle among Kentucky Democrats over the Senatorship for one year.

In other words, the Kentucky August primary of this year is a nullity so far as nominating candidates for Senator is concerned and the candidates for that office will not be chosen until a primary can be held next year.

This postpones for one year a decision as to whether Beckham or Stanley, or some one else, shall be the Democratic choice.

Mr. Thompson says the Kentucky statute provides for annual primaries and for the nomination of Senatorial candidates at primaries next preceeding the election. As a successor to Senator Bradley can not be elected until November, 1914 and as there is to be another primary in 1914 it is Mr. Thompson's opinion that the Kentucky law can not be construed in any other way than to make it absolutely necessary to postpone the nomination of Senatorial candidates until next year.

This view is generally shared by members of the Kentucky Congressional delegation.

J. Pierpont Morgan.

There was more than the sheer bulk of his accomplishments to fain for Morgan the kingly nicknames that marked the later years of his life. Physically he was an impressive figure. He stood six feet in height and measured forty-six inches about the chest. His hats were size 7 1/2 big enough to rest upon the shoulders of most men. His features were big, though of his nose alone could it be said that it was abnormal.

In manner, too, he was both imperial and imperious. In speech he was staccato and laconic. He could, and often did, yield to spectacular fits of rage, but as often he was soft to the point of sweetness. Of the men associated with him he exacted literal obedience—in evidence whereof may be mentioned the true story of the agent who was told to buy a certain block of stock at $7 and bought it at $8 1-2, thereby paving the way for his discharge—New York World.

Woman's Hats are Soft This Year.

On a page devoted to woman's hats, in the May Woman's Home Companion, appears the following:

"Everywhere softness is emphasized in millinery this spring, even the small tailored hats have lost some of their old-time stiffness. Much of the soft effect is secured by the graceful undulation of the brim, and again it is brought out by a fabric-draped crown and dainty flower trimmings. Quite the correct new model shows the gracefully shaped brim smoothly covered with material and a crown that is decidedly tamo'-shanter in style. Modifications of the sailor shape are much favored for the development of crepe, satin, tulle and dainty beccaded charmeuse."

Man upstate is being sued because he did not pay a note. Another case which requires due influence.

Ignorance of the law does not defeat a client nearly so often as does the ignorance of his lawyer.

THE ADAIR COUNTY NEWS

Published Every Wednesday

BY THE

Adair County News Company.

(INCORPORATED.)

CHAS. S. HARRIS EDITOR.

Democratic newspaper devoted to the interest of the City of Columbia and the people of Adair and adjacent counties.

Entered at the Columbia Post-office as second class mail matter.

WED. MAY 7, 1913.

The next Legislature will, of necessity, face some of the most important propositions in the history of this State, the solution of which will be felt for many years to come. If it be a competent, discrete body it will handle the situation in a most beneficial manner. If it lightly considers the true condition or blunders in giving wholesome legislation the evil effects can not be overcome in a quarter of a century. Already we have called attention to many serious defects in the primary election law; so serious as to strike at independent voting—the only available avenue to cure corrupt government. This law must be overhauled and made to conform to public good rather than party advancement. While this may be regarded lightly by many, yet, when its effects are fully realized its seriousness will not be underestimated. Untrammelled, intelligent suffrage must correct the evils that come through parties and the liberation of the voters is indispensable to such a cause. The primary law is not the only nor the most important measure to be considered. Kentucky has a large unauthorized debt—a deficit that is increasing all the while. Sooner or later the tax payers must pay it and the next Legislature should revise the revenue laws not merely to pay this debt but to meet the legitimate expenses of the state, under ordinary conditions for the next quarter of a century. Our penal, charitable and educational institutions must be maintained in a manner that will best serve the purposes for which they were established, but conservative business methods should direct their course. Many other measures of vital importance to public prosperity will come before our next general assembly, so the necessity of selecting able and discrete representatives from every district in the State ought to be impressed on the people. In this, the 37th Legislative district, Adair and Cumberland, we trust that the right man will be found and that he will go to give valuable service, to serve rather than be served. Without reflecting upon any one who has represented this district, or who may desire to do so in the coming session of the General Assembly, we hope a business man of unquestionable ability, progressive, active and with courage to fight, both on and off of the floor of the House, for such measures as are necessary for the well being of this district and the State at large will come to the front at an early date and offer his services. As we see it the Democratic party is in position to offer such a man, in far better position than its Republican opponents. Not because it possesses a monopoly on ability and fitness, but due to the fact that it has no contention within its ranks for the position named. Under such condition we urge the Democrats of the two counties to get together and present the right man to be selected.

Rumor says that the Inspector and Examiner, under the resolution adopted by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund in December, has investigated all departments of the State government, and that he will be able to present to the next Legislature a complete and exhaustive report so that the members, if they will work, can determine the needs of the State. Graft can and should be cut out. Unauthorized expenditure of the people's money should and must be stopped. Extravagance and waste will be tolerated no longer. To the voters of the 37th Legislative District we say get together and elect a man, to represent us in the next session of the General Assembly.

By looking over our announcement columns it will be seen that Mr. W. H. Wilson is a candidate for jailer of Adair county, subject to the action of the Democratic voters at the August primary. Mr. Wilson has been a staunch party man all his life, and has given valuable service to the party at every election. Eight years ago he was the Democratic nominee for the same position. At that time the Republican party was united, and he was defeated by a small majority. He will enter actively into the campaign and will push his claims until the primary closes. If he should be nominated he will be thankful, and will have not one word of complaint against Democrats who support other candidates. It will be his purpose to win at the November election, and to do that, he believes he would have to pitch his canvass upon a high plane and work diligently until the fall contest is over. Thanking those who have tendered him their support, he now starts in the canvass.

In to-day's issue of The News Mr. R. S. English is announced as a candidate for Jailer of Adair county, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. English is a farmer who resides in the Milltown precinct and is popular with his neighbors, all of whom are interested in his ambition. He was born and reared in Cumberland county, but has been a resident of Adair county for great many years. He commenced voting the Democratic ticket as soon as he reached his majority, working for the success of the ticket in every election. He is a little late, that is later than many other candidates in making his announcement, but he expects to canvass the county and personally present his claims. He asks his friends not to commit themselves, as he had received many encouraging reports as to his prospects from various sections of the county, and that he is in the fight to win the nomination. He would be truly thankful if his friends would personally interest themselves in his behalf, promising them that should he be elected he would use his utmost endeavors to make a faithful officer.

By reference to our Russell county announcement column it will be seen that Levi Foley is a candidate for Assessor of said county, subject to the action of the Republican party, expressed at the August primary. Mr. Foley is twenty-four years old and was born and reared in Russell county. His parents were poor, hence young Foley had to "Weed his own Row"—a self-made man. In school, he was industrious, acquiring a fair education, and has made an inviolable reputation as a teacher the four years he has been in the profession. To better equip himself for the school room he attended two terms at the State Normal, Bowling Green. He is an ardent Republican and has worked faithfully for the success of his party, but has never been a prejudice partisan. A more worthy aspirant or a more worthy recipient, has not asked the suffrage of the Republicans of Russell county.

Mr. Joseph H. Stone is announced in this issue of the News as a candidate for County Attorney of Russell county, subject to the action of the Republican party. Mr. Stone is a lawyer of considerable ability and his legal knowledge comes by inheritance. His father, Judge W. S. Stone, who died a number of years ago, was one of the most prominent lawyers of Russell county, and a man who was in the hearts of the people. His grand-father, on his mother's side, Joseph E. Hays, in the prime of his life, was a successful practitioner, well-known in ten or twelve counties. His uncle, J. B. Stone, of Monticello, Geo. E. Stone, of Danville, and Boyle Stone, who is in the west, are lawyers of undisputed ability. The subject of this writing has been successfully practicing his profession for a number of years, he is very much interested in the affairs of Russell county, and believes that he can better serve his people by looking after the fiscal end of said county. He is a gentleman well qualified for the position he seeks, and he promises that in the event he is the choice of the Republicans at the primary, he will use his utmost endeavors to lead the party to victory at the November election. He also promises to discharge the duties of the office according to law, without fear or favor, and to the best interest of the tax-payers of the county. Every vote cast will be

Because it's Welded, you can take it Down and Put it Up Without Injuring the Fence

That's a good point to consider.

Many a time you would shift a line of fencing from, say, the bull pasture to the hog lot—if it didn't destroy the efficiency of the fence.

In "Pittsburgh Perfect", the only fence with electrically welded joints, the stays are permanently joined to the line wires.

It is actually a one-piece fence.

Taking down "Pittsburgh Perfect" and re-stringing it doesn't hurt it a bit. This is one exclusive "Pittsburgh Perfect" feature of economy perhaps you haven't thought of. Our catalogue, sent free, tells of many more. Get a copy at once.

duly appreciated, and in the meantime he will endeavor to see all the voters of the county before the date of the primary, August 2, 1913.

The Louisville Times' department, "What's Doing Among Politicians," contained the following paragraph last Friday: "Already considerable interest is being taken in the next race for the Democratic nomination for Judge of the Court of Appeals in the Third appellate district, which runs from Hardin county to the Tennessee line, and is the largest in the State. Friends of Judge Rollin Hurt, of Adair county, assert positively that he will make the race and is so situated geographically as to give him a decided advantage. Judge J. P. Hobson, of Hardin county, the incumbent, who is completing his second term of eight years, is also regarded as a certain starter, as is Circuit Judge Samuel E. Jones, of Glasgow, who presides on the bench of the Tenth judicial district. Another mentioned for the judgeship is Judge Virgil P. Smith, of Somerset."

As my last letter to your paper brought me some cheery letters from my old friend and schoolmate, to-wit: Robert B. Keltner, of Moody, Texas, I feel encouraged to pen a few lines tonight while my mind is wondering back to Kentucky. I often think of the pleasant times that we spent at old Big Creek school and how the pupils of my age have wandered away from Adair county, Ky. If any of the boys or girls who attended that school 12 or 15 years ago reads this I would be delighted to receive letters from them.

Wheat and meadows are good. For fear I take too much of your space from the candidates who have announced for the various offices in the county, I'll bring my few random remarks to a close by saying that wages are as good under a Democratic administration as they were under the Republican administration.

Yours,
G. C. Wilsen.

Our little band who are members of the Christian church, have employed Rev. H. S. Masters, of Corbin, Ky., to preach for us. He has delivered some fine sermons since he has been with us, and I think a time advances he will grow in our esteem. He seems sincere and earnest. The gentleman's father came over about two week ago and has been preaching a series of sermons. Every one seems to appreciate and enjoy them so much. We would be glad if Rev. J. W. Masters would just keep on all the spring and summer, at least through this month. In our girlhood days, my brother and I always rejoiced over a fine lecture, or when one of those fine theatrical troops came to town whose pieces were bright, amusing and improving. We always regretted to see them leave. Now a fine sermon is much more enjoyable. It leaves something for the heart and mind to rest upon.

The Brother Baugh property across the branch up the hill has been sold, R. E. Lloyd being the purchaser. We always speak of it as the Brother B. property, although it has been a number of years since brother Baugh sold it. It changes hands so often we cannot keep in pace with it. Lawyer Stone, after giving up the property to Mr. Lloyd, moved in the Sim Dockery property this side of the branch. We presume Mr. Lloyd and his bride will be occupying this cottage on the hill before many days. The marriage was rather secret being solemnized at the parsonage Wednesday night, Rev. Tarter officiating. It is useless to mention the name of the bride, Mr. Lloyd having been the steady company of the lady, commencing with candy hearts Xmas, 1904. The chivaree about 12 o'clock Wednesday night was invigorating and full of life. When the party reached the street just in the middle of the street facing our home and the Hotel Holt, they sang some very beautiful songs. The songs were certainly fine. But alas, our "chum" has passed into the keeping of another, Alas! Alas!

Mrs. Judge Williams has not been so well for the last month. You might call it a case of heart trouble, or rather griet over bereavements. Mrs. Williams' sister, Mrs. J. H. Seaton, of Bourbon county, died the morning of March 26. She was operated on at the Good Samaritan Hospital at Lexington for tumor, and died unexpectedly. The grief of her young daughter's husband was excessive. Mrs. Williams is still sending them words of affections and comfort through the mails, and they send her sweet but sad letters in return. There were only three of her, sister, brother and I. I am the only one left. "He giveth His beloved sleep." Mrs. Judge Williams.

The Perfect Laxative For Elderly People

Age has its attractions no less than youth in a more serene and quieter life. But it is this very life of rest without sufficient exercise that brings with it those disorders that arise from inactivity. Chief of these are chronic, persistent constipation.

Most elderly people are troubled in this way, with accompanying symptoms of belching, drowsiness after eating, headaches and general lassitude. Frequently there is difficulty of digesting even light food. Much mental trouble ensues, as it is hard to find a suitable remedy. First of all the advice may be given that elderly people should not use salts, cathartic pills or powders, waters or any of the more violent purgatives. What they need, women as well as men, is a mild laxative tonic, one that is pleasant to take and yet acts without gripping.

The remedy that fills all these requirements, and has in addition tonic properties that strengthen the stomach, liver and bowels, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which thousands of elderly people use, to the exclusion of all other remedies. Trustworthy people like A. B. Tigrett, Oaklawn Farm, Newbern, Tenn., and Mrs. Lizzie S. Brooks, Paris, Ky., say they take it at regular intervals and in that way not only maintain general good health, but that they have not in years felt as good as they do now. You will do well to always have a bottle of it in the house. It is good for all the family.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

Foolish Philosophy.

Don't make the mistake that a woman never uses her head. How else could she display her hats?

A man who sells his experience for less than he paid for it is a failure.

In sizing up a small boy at meal time you must be forced to the conclusion that he is larger than he looks from the outside.

If you would stand well with the ladies you must give them your seat in a crowded car.

In Kind Remembrance.

The Death Angel has again invaded the home of F. M. Stotts and taken from them his kind and beloved wife, Mattie. Deceased was 28 years of age, and a victim of consumption. She bore her suffering with great patience and was so kind and thankful to her many friends and relatives who so tenderly and willingly waited on her. She professed a hope in Christ eleven years ago, and united with the Methodist Church in which she has been a consistent member ever since.

On several occasions she was heard to express her willingness to go in the presence of her husband and mother as she called her. Mattie's maiden name was Akin. Her mother died leaving her at the age of 5 years. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Curry then gave her a good home until she was married.

We could see that Mattie regretted to leave her sweet little girls, aged 5 and 9 years, but we hope there will be some good way provided for them.

But oh it gives us such pain to see and know that our friends and loved ones are passing off the stage of action, but we too must soon pass out of this old tabernacle and the Apostle Paul said, as he was inspired of God to speak "If this Tabernacle of our house were desolved we have a building not made with hands Eternal in the Heavens."

We believe when we are done with time our bodies will return to the dust from whence they were taken and the spirit to God who gave it, and this, not according to our will, but the all-wise and powerful God who worketh all things after the council of His own will and doeth all things well.

So dear sorrowing friends we will try to console ourselves with this thought: We will judge not the Lord by feeble sense, but trust Him for His Grace behind a frowning providence He hides a smiling face.

A Friend,
Sallie A. Patterson.

Wonderful Skin Salve.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve is known everywhere as the best remedy made for all diseases of the skin, and also for burns, bruises and boils. Reduces inflammation and is soothing and healing. J. T. Sossaman, publisher of News, of Cornelius, N. C., writes that one box helped his serious skin ailments after other remedies failed. Only 25c. Recommended by Paul Drug Co.

Gone to His Reward.

On March 21st, 1913, the death angel visited the home of Mrs. Laura Thomas and claimed for its victim her beloved husband, Taylor Thomas.

"Uncle" Taylor, as we all knew him, was 62 years old the 5th day of last June, and his neighbors all surprised him with a birthday dinner. A large crowd was present by 11 o'clock, uncle Taylor meeting us all at the gate with a welcome to all, very much surprised and awfully well pleased.

The table was soon covered with good things to eat. There were 63 who ate dinner and enough took away for as many more. That day will long be remembered by all who were present for the entire crowd seemed to enjoy the day so well.

"Uncle" Taylor had been in

I feel that if he had not have had one of the best women in the world for a companion, one who waited on him and cared for him and went through wet and dry, wind or snow, to keep him out of the bad weather that he would have departed this life much sooner than he did.

He was a man who will be greatly missed in the neighborhood, for he was ever ready and willing to accommodate anybody that he could.

He was converted during a protracted meeting held by Rev. John Atkins 4 or more years ago but had never united with any church, or been baptized on account of his health not being

He leaves a wife and one step-daughter, Mrs. D. C. Hopper, a father and a number of brothers and sisters to mourn their loss. They have the sympathy of the entire neighborhood. ## Electric Bitters

Made A New Man Of Him.
"I was suffering from pain in my stomach, head and back," writes H. T. Alston, Raleigh, N. C., "and my liver and kidneys did not work right, but four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." PRICE 50 CTS. AT ALL DRUG STORES.

Pains All Over!

"You are welcome," says Mrs. Nora Guffey, of Broken Arrow, Okla., "to use my letter in any way you want to, if it will induce some suffering woman to try Cardui. I had pains all over, and suffered with an abscess. Three physicians failed to relieve me. Since taking Cardui, I am in better health than ever before, and that means much to me, because I suffered many years with womanly troubles, of different kinds. What other treatments I tried, helped me for a few days only."

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

Don't wait, until you are taken down sick, before taking care of yourself. The small aches and pains, and other symptoms of womanly weakness and disease, always mean worse to follow, unless given quick treatment.

You would always keep Cardui handy, if you knew what quick and permanent relief it gives, where weakness and disease of the womanly system makes life seem hard to bear. Cardui has helped over a million women. Try it.

Lime on Land.

A farmer once wrote to Horace Greeley's paper and asked him if lime was good on potatoes. The great editor answered that he did not know, but that he knew that butter was.

Lime is good on potatoes and it is good on most any kind of land to raise any kind of crop. The farmers of Hardin county are beginning to realize this fact more and more each year. They are having ocular demonstrations of the very poorest farm in the country being converted into the most productive by the free use of ground limestone. We are firmly of the opinion that the poor farms of Hardin county can be increased in productiveness fifty per cent. by the use of a ton to two tons of ground limestone to the acre. Five dollars an acre in ground limestone will in five years add twenty dollars an acre to the value of one half of the cultivated soil of Hardin county. This statement is not based upon mere theory but upon established facts and practical demonstrations made in several sections of Hardin county. Take the Rose farm, three miles east of Elizabethtown, which now grows as fine alfalfa and clover as nearly any farm in Hardin county. We remember when this farm, before it was liberally treated to lime, would not sprout black eyed peas. There are other instances elsewhere in the county. Use lime and use it abundantly upon your thin soil and especially your soil which is acid and you will get a bigger return than anything you can do for the land. The commercial fertilizer, if you get the right kind for your soil, will be good for one crop, but lime will last for ten or fifteen years.—E-Town News.

The island of Manhattan covers twenty-two square miles.

France is the greatest wine producing country in the world.

The moon's surface contains 14,685,000 square miles or nearly four times the area of Europe.

In the number of building associations, Pennsylvania leads all the other states, with Ohio second.

The Earth's sensible atmosphere is supposed to extend forty miles into space, and probably further.

Best Medicine for Colds.

When a druggist recommends a remedy for colds, throat and lung troubles you can feel sure that he knows what he is talking about. C. Lowry, druggist, of Marion, Ohio, writes of Dr. King's New Discovery: "I know Dr. King's New Discovery is the best throat and lung medicine I sell. It cured my wife of a severe bronchial cold after all other remedies failed." It will do the same for you if you are suffering with a cold or any bronchial, throat or lung cough. Keep a bottle on hand all the time for everyone in the family to use. It is a home doctor. Price 50c and $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by Paull Drug Co.

woman Must Fight to Vote.

Praise of the militant suffragettes in England and prediction of serious trouble in America if woman do not get the ballot were Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont's farewell themes as she prepared to sail for Europe as a delegate from this country to the Woman's Suffrage Convention in Budapest, opening June 15.

Mrs. Belmont said she approved of everything the "English Wild Women" have done, and that if woman suffrage is not effected in New York in 1915 militant methods may prevail here.

"The English women will get the vote now before we do, and that will be a disgrace," she said. "People here do not know it, but Mrs. Parkhurst was told by Arthur Balfour and other big men militant methods must be used if the women would win. Men never won their freedom without shedding blood, and the women will not get theirs without fighting."

Mrs. Belmont never made a greater mistake in her life than the above statement. Only a few half crazy and half fanatical women in this country share this opinion. We believe the American women are too level headed to expect to win the right of suffrage by force, even if a majority of them favored the proposition. Mrs. Belmont should consider the returns from Michigan on the amendment to the constitution granting female suffrage. It was first defeated by only 740 votes, but the action of Mrs. Pankhurst and other English women in the destruction of property and other lawless acts to secure cure suffrage, lead to the defeat at the second election by 60,000. There never was any chance of woman suffrage being granted in this country, but the statement of Mrs. Belmont makes it utterly impossible. If Mrs. Belmont endeavors to play the Pankhurst act in this country she will be promptly squelched and imprisoned and she will find it impossible to get a respectable following among decent women.—E-Town News.

For the Weak and Nervous.

Tired-out, weak, nervous men and women would feel ambitious, energetic and full of life and always have a good appetite, if they would do the sensible thing for health—take Electric Bitters. Nothing better for the stomach, liver or kidneys. Thousands say they owe their lives to this wonderful home remedy. Mrs. O. Rhine-vault, of Vestal Center, N. Y., says: "I regard Electric Bitters as one of the greatest of gifts. I can never forget what it has done for me." Get a bottle yourself and see what a difference it will make in your health. Only 50c and $1.00. Recommended by Paull Drug Co.

How to Cultivate Corn.

Corn is a plant which requires much water for its growth. Hence, to produce the best crop possible it is necessary to keep down all weeds and to prevent the evaporation of moisture from the surface of the soil. These two things may be accomplished by good methods of cultivation. When the soil is not too wet, it is a good practice to run a spike tooth smoothing harrow, or some form of weeder, over the corn field three or four days after planting. This will destroy most of the early weeds, besides breaking any crust which may have formed over the germinating seeds. This work would often endanger the young plants if done later than five days after planting. The first regular cultivation should be given five or six days after the corn is up, and thereafter cultivations should be repeated after each rain and besides, often enough to keep down all weeds. Shallow cultivation forming a surface soil mulch is the best for a dry season, while even during wet times the cultivation should be in no case deep enough to break the roots of the corn plants. During the first part of the growing season the cultivation of the corn crop should be so thorough that it will not be necessary to continue cultivation longer than the time when this work begins to break down the corn.

H. B. Hendrick, Ass't. Agronomist, Extension Division, Kentucky Experiment Station.

Health a Factor in Success.

The largest factor contributing to a man's success is undoubtedly health. It has been observed that a man is seldom sick when his bowels are regular—he is never well when they are constipated. For constipation you will find nothing quite so good as Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. They are sold by Paull Drug Co.

There is nothing that makes a man feel so small as to realize that he has been taken in.

The people who are weighed in the balances and found wanting are always the first to complain that the scales are out of order.

A woman's clothes are generally on her mind, even when they are on her back.

It's all right to appreciate the good things of life, but don't be one of them.

"Ah mos' suhtainly does, boss. Why, dat man axed de Lord fo' things dat de odder preachers didn't even know he had!"

The Home Paper.

It wants you on its reading list, recorded on its books, and then you'll get it every week and know just how it looks.

It will tell you all about the news, in this and nearby towns, who gets married, dies, is born, and who elopes or drowns.

There isn't a thing from A to Z that tends to help the town, that the paper doesn't catch it up and quickly pass it round.

It tells about your visitors, with titles emphasized, while all their points of merit are freely generalized.

It tells the story of success, but screens the failure side, and when the facts will make a mess, it simply lets them slide.

It tells about your virtues, and overlooks your sins, and puts an extra emphasis upon the birth of twins.

It never designs to tell a lie, except in personal praise, and then it does it clear and strong, and with its choicest phrase.

In writing up your marriage, it elaborates with care, and says the bride was beautiful and the groom was on the square.

It doesn't matter who it is that crosses Jordan's river, the paper tickets him as saint, and safely sends him thither.

It tells about that darling boy who had a dollar raise, leaves out his measly little tricks and just recites his praise.

And there's your daughter on the street, gadding night and day, of all the rumor slow or fleet, it wisely does not say.

It paints out every blemish on the picture of your life, and paints in every virtue of a home that has no strife.

It learns to read between the lines and find the tender spot, to blow not cold on young or old, when the blowing should be hot.

It senses all the skeletons behind the closet door and runs its big blue pencil through the lines that turn them o'er.

It knows about your weaknesses, your little streaks of yellow, just how to smother ill reports or make them smooth and mellow.

It knows what families live in peace, and those most apt to jar, and whether it's just a birthmark, or a sad domestic scar.

It knows the man who pays, and the one who could but won't, and all the chronic knockers, and the one who makes a "bunt."

It knows the financial standing of every man in town, and whether its living or cheerless giving, that constantly keeps him down.

Unlike the city dailies that delve in scandal's sewer, it eliminates the sewage and retains the good and pure.—Onarga (Ill) Leader and Review.

Hogwallow News.

Mrs. Jefferson Potlocks returned Thursday morning after a visit to friends and relatives in the Calf Ribs community. She was due back several days ago, but when she started away they asked her not to be in a hurry.

After having heard that a man was awarded five hundred dollars damages on account of a train having run over him, Raz Barlow has taken his seat on the railroad track near Tickville.

Frisby Hancock had the misfortune to lose his knife this week, just as the whittling season was about to get in full bloom. At the time he missed it he was sitting on the fence in the midst of a long winded civil war snake story that was very interesting, and his hearers are assisting him in hunting for the knife so that he can finish the story.

Atlas Peck played a shrewd trick on a patent medicine company last week by writing them for a trial bottle of their remedy, which they offer free of charge to anybody being sick with stomach trouble. Atlas made out like he was sick and went to bed just long enough to write the letter.

Columbus Allsop is on a trade for two more dogs, to trade up the surplus fleas at his house.

Raz Barlow has written to the editor of the Tickville Tidings to inquire about the road to recovery, which is so often mentioned in the Tidings. Raz says he

Japan's Bluff.

The Legislature of California has a bill before it which has aroused an intense feeling in Japan. The bill is one which prohibits Japanese, who are not citizens of the United States, from owning property in California. The government at Washington, in order to maintain friendly relations with Japan, and because it also recognizes the unfairness of the proposed measure, is seeking to have the bill modified so that it will apply to all aliens alike. President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan are using alike their utmost endeavors in this direction and are being helped by Gov. Johnson. We trust that they will be successful, but if not the United States is not to be bluffed by Japan. These Eastern Yankees are puffed up over the successful war against Russia and strut around a little too much with a chip on their shoulders. As a nation Japan is practically bankrupt and has no money or credit to wage war against the United States and their big bluff won't scare anybody.

We do not want to have to whip

Japan and we are not going to be drawn into war without the most serious provocation, but if the worst comes and Uncle Sam has to put on his war paint the Japanese will get the worst licking they ever received.

Interest to Stock Raisers.

The great work being done by the State Veterian, backed by the State and national authorities, in controlling and checking infectious diseases of animals is gaining prominence and encouragement from the stock owners. They are demanding assistance in wiping out diseases, and are ever ready to take all precautions necessary to avoid the introduction of disease into their herds. The stock owner is realizing that infectious diseases may be diagnosed, restrained, prevented and even eradicated by the intelligent use of reliable biological laboratory products, such as vaccines, bacterins, toxins and antitoxins, and his understanding of these products, together with their proper application, has convinced him. Where is the stock man who would question the reliability of black leg vaccine to save his herd from black leg? This vaccine is used more than all others combined, and saves many young herds from complete destruction in black leg season.
